

Designed with young CPAs, CPA candidates and accounting students in mind, this daylong Houston event is packed full of sessions relevant to the professional experiences of Gen Xers and millennials. Make plans to attend or share this conference information with someone you know.

Texas Society of CPAs and the Houston CPA Society Young CPAs and Emerging Professionals Conference May 22 - Hyatt Regency Houston

Register today for the following can't-miss sessions:

- Client relations and practice development;
- Cybercrime;
- Federal taxation;
- How to work with baby boomers;
- Negotiation and conflict resolution;
- Personal financial planning;
- Professional issues;
- Technology trends;
- And more!

Six CPE credit hours available

Cost is just $95 for CPA and candidate members
TSCPA student members get in free
Non-member registration fees apply

Get more details, including registration information, online at tscpa.org.

Designed with young CPAs, CPA candidates and accounting students in mind, this daylong Houston event is packed full of sessions relevant to the professional experiences of Gen Xers and millennials. Make plans to attend or share this conference information with someone you know.

Register today for the following can't-miss sessions:

- Client relations and practice development;
- Cybercrime;
- Federal taxation;
- How to work with baby boomers;
- Negotiation and conflict resolution;
- Personal financial planning;
- Professional issues;
- Technology trends;
- And more!

Six CPE credit hours available

Cost is just $95 for CPA and candidate members
TSCPA student members get in free

Non-member registration fees apply

Get more details, including registration information, online at tscpa.org.